Membership obligations	Club obligations
All Club members are elected on condition that they consent to the Club Rules and the Club’s Privacy Policy which can be found at Privacy Policy (omclub.co.uk) and the Club’s obligations opposite  For the avoidance of doubt, the Club Rules 18 and 19 provide for member consent to receive electronic communications from the Club at all times. This requirement allows us to fulfil our obligations to you with rapid, cost effective and environmentally friendly communications.	We will keep you informed through Newsletters, Martlet, and Social Media of the activities of the Club including invitations to attend formal and informal events, dinners and reunions. We will provide you with a membership card each membership year commencing 1st September on receipt of your annual subscription. We will respond whenever feasible, but without guarantee, to any request you may make for career support and guidance. From time to time we will undertake voluntary appeals for worthy causes and surveys to seek member feedback on Club matters. The Club reserves its rights to modify its obligations at any time without member approval.
